

Agent Orange Legacy

Children of Vietnam Veterans

Agent Orange Legacy is fighting for the services, support and rights of the Children of Vietnam veterans exposed to Agent Orange – Dioxin and their families.

To The Children of Vietnam Veterans: You are the 2nd Generation

The Children of Vietnam veterans need services and supports which are necessary to improve their lives and the lives of their children. Agent Orange Legacy was founded as a result of the same experiences that you have been through and continue to experience on a daily basis.

Our Mission: Agent Orange Legacy is dedicated to improving the lives of the children of Vietnam veterans & families of veterans exposed to agent orange that have fallen victim to a legacy of birth defects, some known & many more not yet identified, chronic illness & pain, emotional & behavioral disorders, learning disabilities, developmental disabilities, & other conditions as a result of their parent(s) service in Vietnam and exposure to toxins such as Agent Orange - Dioxin.

It's time now for you to join this struggle and get answers to the questions that have haunted you all of your lives. We understand just how difficult it has been for the children of Vietnam veterans to thrive in this world. We know because we are just like you.

Sharon Perry, founder of 'Agent Orange Legacy' has advocated for her husband and children and their right to thrive in this world. This struggle is far from over even though their Dad, a Vietnam Veteran passed away in 2005 due to exposure to Agent Orange - Dioxin. Sharon founded Agent Orange Legacy along with her daughter, Danielle in 2007.
